NOTES AND PRECIS.

1

Mr.C.F. DeRozario, Assistant Surgeon, Isolation Hospital, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, requests that he may be granted a special allowance in consideration of the arduous nature of his duties.

Mr.Rozario was appointed as Assistant Surgeon of the Isolation Hospital on the 1st April 1932 and was started on Rs.200 in the old scale of pay namely Rs.200-15-350-20-450. Revised rates of pay at Rs.175-25/2-400 was fixed for the posts of Assistant Surgeons in the Station with effect from 1st January 1935. The new scale was applicable to Mr.Rozario under Rule 3 of the Revised Rates of Pay Rules, as he was entertained in service after the 16th July 1931. He was drawing Rs.230 in the old scale up to the 31st Dec.1934; but with effect from the 1st Jany. 1935 his pay was refixed at Rs.200 p.m. in the new scale. The Residency Surgeon then recommended that this was a fit case for recommending to the Government of India that the difference, namely, Rs.30 might be granted as a personal pay to Mr.Rozario agreeably to the orders issued by the Government of Madras in the case of Government servants under their control similarly situated. In the alternative the Residency Surgeon recommended the grant of a special pay of Rs.30 to Mr.Rozario in consideration of the arduous nature of his duties. This was dealt with along with the general question regarding hardship by the introduction of new scales of pay; and orders were issued to the effect that there were no cases of real hardship sufficiently outstanding to justify special treatment.

The question of the grant of a special pay to the Assistant Surgeon in view of the arduous nature of the ~~ex~~ duties attached to the post has now been raised again. Under F.R.9(25) special pay means an addition, of the nature of the pay, to the emoluments of a post or of a Government servant, granted in consideration of:-

(a) the specially arduous nature of the duties; or

(b) a specific addition to the work or responsibility; or

(c) the unhealthiness of the locality in which the work is performed.

From the F & P. Dept. List it is seen that the following Assistant Surgeons are granted special pay at the rates noted against each.

The Asst.Surgeon in the Lady Curzon Hospital, Bangalore, gets a special pay of Rs.50/-p.m.

The Hospital is isolated from the town proper and the Asst.Surgeon in charge of it is confronted with the following handicaps.

(1) He is in sole medical charge of the Hospital and has to be within its premises practically day and night.

(2) He is deprived of amenities of life and private

3) He has to pay higher rates for food-stuffs and domestic servants.

4) The nature of work performed by him and the unhealthiness of the locality in which both himself and his family are required to reside expose them to the risk of dangerous infection..

Please see Resolution of the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department No.F./14Ests. II/36 dated the 22nd January 1936. The condition of F. R. 9(25) (a) (b) and (c) seem to be fulfilled in this case. There is therefore ample justification to attach a special pay to the post.* The necessity for attaching a special pay for this post does not appear to have been examined in the past. No doubt the present time is not opportune to consider proposals involving additional expenditure as we are now finding it difficult to balance the M.A.T. budget, and all efforts are being made to reduce expenditure. But in view of the outstanding merits of the case, ~~and having regard to the recent reduction in the emoluments of the Assistant Surgeon,~~ it seems that the proposal deserves special consideration. Under F.R.9(25) read with Rule 57 of the Book of Financial Powers, the Hon'ble the Resident is competent to sanction the special pay in this case. This will involve an amendment to the Pay and Cadre Schedules of the Central Services and the Revised Rates of Pay Rules issued by the Govt. of India; and the change may be reported to them in due course.

If approved, the file may be sent U.O. to the Financial Adviser for favour of remarks as to whether, in the circumstances explained above, special pay of Rs.30/- as recommended by the Residency Surgeon may be attached to the post. It need not be personal to Mr.Rozario.

Are you sure that the sanction of the Government of India is not necessary?

14.7.36.

It is necessary to examine the question in sufficient detail firstly with reference to the powers of the Resident to make first appointment to the post of Assistant Surgeon, Isolation Hospital; and secondly with reference to his powers to create the post of the Assistant Surgeon.

Resident's power to make first appointment to the post.

The post of Assistant Surgeon Isolation Hospital is included in Central Services Class II. Under Rule 34 of the Civil Services (Classification Control and Appeal) Rules all first appointments to the Central Services Class II shall be made by the Governor-General in Council or by an authority empowered by the Governor General in Council in this behalf. The power to make first appointment to the post of Assistant Surgeon, Isolation Hospital, has been delegated to the Resident vide, Appendix VIII (page 95 of the book put up). If no such delegation has been made to the Resident it might be held that the Resident has no power to make first appointment to the post of to increase the emoluments of the incumbent of the post. In the case of the Superintendent of the Veterinary Hospital and the Pathologist of the Bowring Hospital the the A.G. held that the orders of the Government of India were necessary to make first appointments to these posts as the power in that behalf in respect of those posts was not delegated to the Resident. This reason will not be applicable in the case of the Assistant Surgeon of the Isolation Hospital as the power to make first appointment to the post has already been delegated to the Resident.

Powers of the Resident to create the post.

Under Rule 57 of the Book of Financial Powers the Resident may increase or reduce the pay of a permanent post or of a Government servant in permanent employ, if the maximum pay of the post of of the Government servant does not exceed Rs.500 after the increase or before the reduction, as the case may be. In the present case the post carries a pay of Rs.175-25/2-400 and with the addition of the special pay of Rs.30/- the maximum pay will come only to Rs.430 and will not exceed Rs.500. It is clear therefore that the Resident is competent to sanction a special pay of Rs.30/- for the post.

12

S.N 10 (B) Cp 10 (removed)

Further under the Foreign and Political Deptt. Memo.No.D.2861-E/35 dated the 2nd Sept. 1935, the Govt. of India have decided that the proposals for amendments in the Pay and Cadre Schedules of Central Services should be made with as little delay as possible after after issue of the orders necessitating such amendments.

Pay and Cadre Schedules contain only posts included in Central Services Class I or II and it is clear from the memorandum mentioned above that it is conceded by the Govt. of India that the Resident has authority to issue orders necessitating amendments to these posts.

In the circumstances it seems certain that the Resident can sanction the special pay proposed and that the sanction of the Government of India is not necessary. If however the position is not clear enough, the Financial Adviser may be consulted U/O or the A.G. may be addressed.

G. O. D. No: 4381, dated 10th August 1936

The post of Assistant Surgeon, Isolation Hospital, belongs to Central Services, Class II. Any change in the pay the pay and allowances of that post requires, under Rule 37 of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, the sanction of the Governor-General in Council. Please also see the decision of the Secretary of State printed as item (2) under F.R. 9 (25) (page 133 of the Posts and Telegraphs compilation of Fundamental Rules) that the power of granting special pay shall be exercised only by the authority empowered to regulate the scales of ordinary pay. The proposed special pay cannot therefore be granted without the sanction of the Government of India.

I would add that, in my view, there seems to be no case for "special pay" although there may be one for revising the pay of the post.

The post of Assistant Surgeon of the Isolation Hospital was specially created for that hospital, and all the grounds now stated for the grant of a special pay existed at the time of its creation and should be held to have been taken into account in fixing the pay of the post. In fact, the first suggestion for the grant of "special pay" was made when, under the new rates of pay rules, the assistant surgeon's pay was re-fixed at Rs.200/- per mensem from 1-1-1935 against Rs.230/- drawn by him up to 31-12-1934 in order to make up for the difference of Rs.30/- per mensem. But special pay is not granted on such considerations. Nor is special pay to be given to make up for lack of amenities. Paras 1 & 2 (a) & (d) of Government of India, F.D. memorandum No.F/14-Ex.II/36, dated 22-1-36, laying down the principles to be followed in granting special pays, may kindly be seen in this connection. The ground referred to in para 3 of that memorandum also does not apply to the present case.

- Reference is made at para 4 of the Notes to the special special pay of Rs.50/- given to the Assistant Surgeon of the Lady Curzon Hospital. That is a teaching allowance given to the assistant surgeon for giving lectures to midwifery pupils which is a specific -- addition to the ordinary duties of an assistant surgeon. It affords no parallel to the case under examination.

Please see these notes from the beginning.

The F.A.'s view that the special pay cannot be granted without the sanction of the Government of India may be accepted, unless it is considered necessary to refer the matter to A.G., Madras for an audit ruling.

The main question however is whether a case exists for the grant of special pay to the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Isolation Hospital or for revising the pay of the post.

P.U.C.

The circumstances in which a special pay of Rs.50/- was granted to each of the three medical officers at Rajkot, Palanpur and Sadra are entirely different and need not therefore be considered.

Special pay should be granted only when the conditions of F.R.9(25) strictly apply. These conditions are:-

(a) Specially arduous nature of the duties; or

(b) A specific addition to the work or responsibility; or

(c) The unhealthiness of the locality in which the work is performed.

Conditions (a) and (c) would seem to apply to the case of the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Isolation Hospital. He has no assistants, and has therefore to be on duty throughout day and night.. The hospital is situated in a secluded place removed from the town and the staff and their families are exposed to the risk of infection.

The F.A. says that, in his view, there seems to be no case for "special pay" although there may be one for revising the pay of the post. He points out that the post of the Assistant Surgeon of the Isolation Hospital was specially created for that hospital and that all the grounds now stated for the grant of a special pay existed at the time of its creation and should be held to have beentaken into account in fixing the pay of the post. This is no doubt strictly correct; but it may also be mentioned that the pay fixed for the post is the same as that fixed for the other Assistant Surgeons serving in Bangalore. The Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Isolation Hospital gets no extra compensation of any kind for holding sole charge of an infectious diseases hospital.. This is really hard, unless it can be said that his normal duties are less onerous and heavy than those of the other Assistant Surgeons drawing the same pay.. If approved, the Residency Surgeon may be consulted u.o. on this point. If there is a case for extra remuneration, it will be more convenient to attach a special pay to the post than to revise the grade pay of the post which is common to all the Assiatant Surgeons.both in Madras and in Bangalore.

28.9.36.

Will Residency Surgeon kindly see the note from para 1 ante and favour this Residency with his advice.

30.9.36.

To

The Residency Surgeon, Bangalore
U.O.No. 8375 dated 30th September 1936.

I would invite attention to the considerations which were enumerated in my letter No. 580/95 dated the 12th of July 1935 when urging the grant of some allowance to the Assistant Surgeon of the Government Isolation Hospital.

I have carefully read the notes on this file, and, in my opinion, grounds (a) & (b) apply in a special degree to the work of this Assistant Surgeon. His work is specially arduous in that he is in sole charge of the hospital and has to be present, or be within call, day or night. This hospital is always well stocked, and in times of epidemic may be extremely overcrowded; for the treatment of these varying cases of infectious disease devloves upon this Assistant Surgeon.

His responsibility is also considerably above that of other Assistant Surgeons serving in Bangalore. In the case of the House Surgeons of the Bowring and Lady Curzon Hospitals, not only have these officers competent subordinates working under them, but the Residency Surgeon spends the bulk of his working day in the hospital and is always available on early call by telephone. In the case of this Assistant Surgeon, his hospital is remote and, moreover, it is more than likely that the preoccupations of the Residency Surgeon in his two larger hospitals would prevent his answering a call to the Isolation Hospital with the same promptitude that such calls are answered to the Bowring and Lady Curzon Hospitals. This, in my opinion, places a heavy load of responsibility upon the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Isolation Hospital, and one which in itself constitutes sufficient ground for remuneration.

A third consideration which may possibly come under heading (c) in para 26 of notes, also applies with considerable emphasis to this Assistant Surgeon. His daily work is carried out in the presence of infectious disease. Not only is the work, as has been shown, heavy, but it involves quite a disproportionate risk to the health of the Assistant Surgeon, who is running risks of infection in the course of his daily work such as are only incidental to his colleagues in general medical or surgical practice.

In conclusion, I am in entire agreement with the opinion expressed in para 28 that an exceptionally strong case for the grant of some form of remuneration — either 'special pay', 'personal pay', or 'regrading of the pay of the post'. — exists in this case.

The Residency Surgeon has made out a strong case for the grant of a special pay to the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Isolation Hospital. In case it is decided to accept the proposal, it will be necessary to address the Government of India, as F.A. has taken the view that the Resident has no power to revise the pay and allowances of an officer of Central Services, Class II. A draft to the Govt. of India will accordingly be prepared and submitted for consideration; but in the meanwhile, an authoritative ruling may, if approved, be obtained from A.G., Madras, regarding Resident's powers to grant special pay. It will be seen from the Accountant General's letter that the Resident can sanction special pay to the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Isolation Hospital; and when there is proper sanction to an expenditure, it is submitted that it is not necessary to obtain special sanction of the Government of India to make the necessary budget provision. In the present instance the extra expenditure involved is Rs.120/- (at Rs.30/- p.m.) during the current year and Rs.360/- during next year. It is understood from the Residency Surgeon's Office that the extra expenditure for the current year and next year cannot be met from savings under "Pay of Officers" in the medical budget. Therefore the expenditure will have to be met by re-appropriation. But under Rule 9 (d) of the Book of Financial Powers no re-appropriation may be made to meet any expenditure other than contingent expenditure which is likely to involve further outlay in a future financial year. In the circumstances, the special pay may be sanctioned only temporarily, say till the end of 1937-38. Later on provision may be made in the budget for 1938-39 and if the Government of India allow the budget provision to stand, the special pay can be sanctioned as a permanent measure with effect from that year.

Page 8 of the Book put up.

The main question to be decided however is whether there is a case for the grant of special pay to the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Isolation Hospital. The Residency Surgeon has made out a very strong case for the grant of additional remuneration to this Assistant Surgeon

CORRESPONDENCE.

Copy of letter dated 16th April 1936 from the Assistant Surgeon, Government Isolation Hospital, Bangalore, to the Residency Surgeon, Bangalore.

I beg to place before you my case which is causing me great hardship.

I have been in service for over four years and was confirmed in May, last year. All through my service I have experienced the following hardships:-

1. Working without an assistant and on call day and night.

2. Being far removed from the town I and my family are deprived of the amenities of life. We cannot obtain food stuffs and provisions without having to pay extra for transit nor can we secure suitable domestic servants without having to pay them higher wages than what they are obtainable for in town.

3. In my professional capacity I cannot look forward to nor do I get any private practice being so situated.

4. The hazardous nature of the work exposing not only myself but also my wife and children to the risk of dangerous infections.

I therefore beg, sir, You will kindly consider my case sympathetically and recommend me for a special allowance.

Thanking you, Sir,

Subject:- Special pay.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.F.915-36 R.O.I dated the 7th August 1936, I am directed to forward herewith a copy of Government of Bombay, Political Department, Resolution No.443 dated the 16th February 1924 containing information concerning the circumstances in which special pay of Rs.50/- p.m. was granted to each of the three medical officers at Rajkot, Palanpur and Sadra, who belong to the Bombay Medical Service.

2. I am to add for your information that the Scott Hospital, Palanpur, has recently been closed and that that Medical Officer has reverted to the Bombay cadre of Assistant Surgeons in consequence of the transfer of the headquarters of Sabar Kantha Agency from Palanpur to Sadra.

I have the honour to be,

Resolution No.443.

Bombay Castle, 16th February 1924.

Letter to the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department, No.3670, dated the 10th May 1922 :-

" I am directed by the Governor in Council to submit for the favourable consideration of the Government of India the case of the four Assistant Surgeons appointed in the four Political Agencies under the control of the Government of Bombay.

2. Till now it has been the practice to appoint four Assistant Surgeons with consolidated pay to the following four appointments :-

| | Consolidated Pay. |
|---|---|
| Assistant Surgeon in charge Scott Hospital, Palanpur. | Rs.-200 per-mensem. |
| Assistant Surgeon in charge Civil Hospital, Sadra. | " 200 " |
| Assistant Surgeon in charge Agency Hospital, Bhuj. | " 200 " |
| Assistant to the Agency Surgeon, Kathiawar. | " 200 " |

At Sadra, Palanpur and Bhuj 3rd Class Assistant Surgeons with grade pay of Rs.100/- are generally appointed and the consolidated pay given to them is Rs.200. At Rajkot an Assistant Surgeon of the 2nd Class with grade pay of Rs.150 ordinarily holds the appointment with the consolidated pay of Rs.250.

3. The position of these Assistant Surgeons has however materially changed owing to the revision of pay of Civil Assistant Surgeon in the Bombay Presidency sanctioned by Government Resolution, General Department No.578, dated the 18th January 1922 (a copy of which is enclosed). It will be seen from this Resolution that the grade system has been replaced by a time-scale with starting pay of Rs.200 per mensem. According to paragraph 3 of the Resolution all existing duty and other allowances which are sanctioned for special reasons, with the exception of the Dispensary allowance, are to be continued, in addition to the revised pay. The Assistant Surgeons in charge of the four Agency Hospitals get no allowances which are usually drawn by their contemporaries in British service, and it was to compensate them for this loss that they were granted in the form of consolidated pay Rs.100 more than their grade pay.

4. As the grade system has now been abolished the Surgeon General with the Government of Bombay has recommended that these four Assistant Surgeons should be given a duty allowance of Rs.100 per mensem in addition to their revised pay. The Governor in Council is however of opinion that a duty allowance of Rs.50 per mensem will be sufficient. As the salary and allowance of the four Assistant Surgeons appointed in the Political Agencies are debited to the Central head "29-Political", I am to request that the Government of India may be moved to sanction to these four Assistant Surgeons a duty allowance of Rs.50 per mensem each in addition to their revised pay with effect from the 1st April 1921, the date from which the revised pay was sanctioned, and to place at the disposal of the Government of Bombay a sum of Rs.4800 to meet the expenditure in question for the years 1921-22 and 1922-23."

Letter from the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department, No.2040/715-Est, dated the 10th July 1922.

Letter to the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department No.443-D., dated the 24th March 1923.

Letter from the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department No.1638/715-E., dated the 9th June 1923:-

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No.443/D., dated the 24th March 1923, and to convey the sanction of the Government of India to the grant of a special pay of Rs.50 per mensem to each of the four Assistant Surgeons in charge of the Agency Hospitals at Palanpur, Sadra, Bhuj and Rajkot, on condition that the expenditure involved during the current financial year is met by reappropriation.

2. The Government of India regret that they cannot agree to giving retrospective effect to the sanction which will, therefore, have effect from the date of this letter."

Resolution:- The orders of the Government of India should be communicated to the undermentioned officers and Departments.

2. The extra cost during the current year should be met from the saving in the provision of Rs.50,000 made in the current year's budget for the centralisation of certain posts which are paid from the Kathiawar Consolidated Local Fund.

Sir,

I am directed to enquire whether under F.R.9(25) and Rule 57 of the Book of Financial Powers, the Hon'ble the Residen has power to grant special pay to an officer of the Central Services, Class II under his administrative control, or whether the sanction of the Government of India is necessary for the grant of such special pay under Rule 37 of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules. Endorsement from the Residency Surgeon No.182/109, dated the 25th April 1936.

Letter from the Accountant General, Madras, No.G.A.Medl-1-516, dated the 31st October 1936.
